IRON AND STEEL.

Proceedings of the American Association in Session at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, May 6.—The general convention of the American iron and steel manufacturers and iron ore producers met this morning in the rooms of the Western Iron and Nail Association. This convention is intended to include all the manufacturers and ore producers of the country and was called by Hon. D. J. Morrell, president of the American Iron and Steel Association, to consider the present condition of the iron and steel industries, their wants and the dangers which are threatening them. There was a large attendance of delegates, including a number of the leading men of the country. At 11 o'clock Wm. P. Shinn, of Pittsburgh, called the convention to order and moved that Hon. D. J. Morrell take the chair. The motion was unanimously adopted. The chairman appointed Mr. W. Swank and Mr. Jos. D. Weeks, secretaries.

Mr. Morrell then addressed the convention. He spoke encouragingly of the condition and prospects of the trade, and denounced the recent purchase of foreign rails by the Vanderbilt roads. Papers on the subject of protection from the pens of Jos. Wharton, of Philadelphia, and A. B. Stone, of Cleveland. A memorial from the United States Iron and Tin Plate Company, concerning the tariff, was received and referred to a committee. The convention then took a recess.

WASHINGTON.

Robeson's Bill to "Further Protect the Freedom of Elections" (?)

The New Army Bill Passed by the House This Afternoon.

THE FOUR PERCENTS.

Washington, May 6.—The subscriptions to the four percent refunding certificates since yesterday's report amount to $1,024,600.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, May 6.—Mr. McDonald reported from the committee on judiciary, with amendments introduced yesterday by Mr. Eaton, a bill making it unlawful to use any part of the army and navy at the polls, etc. He gave notice that he would call it up to-morrow. The judiciary committee has added two amendments. The first provides that the bill's prohibition against bringing to or employing troops at the polls shall not apply to the use of military force when necessary to protect the state against invasion. The other amendment inserts the words, "when the legislature cannot be convened," after the clause which exempts from prohibition the employment of the army or navy to enforce the 4th section of article 4 of the constitution, and laws made in pursuance thereof, upon application of the legislature or executive of the state.

Mr. Beck reported from the committee on appropriations, with amendments, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, and gave notice that he would call it up at an early day. The principal amendments made by the committee on appropriations are those which were agreed upon by the committee yesterday, including the emission of the house clause directing the $10,000,000 reserve to be issued as payment of arrears of pensions.

A resolution authorizing the taking of testimony in relation to the claim of Spofford to the seat of Senator Kellogg was considered.

HOUSE.

The morning hour was consumed in introducing and referring bills. The senate amendments to the bill providing for certain expenses of the present session were concurred in. Knott reported back, without amendment, the bill introduced yesterday to prohibit military interference at elections.

Robeson offered a substitute making it unlawful to bring to or employ at any place where a general or special election is being held in any state, any part of the army or navy unless such employment shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of the constitution, or to overcome any forcible obstruction to the execution of the laws made in pursuance thereof, and making any violation of this act a penal offense. The substitute is entitled "A bill to further protect the freedom of elections."

Robeson's substitute was defeated—aye 93, nays 121. Only one greenbacker, Herford, voted aye. De La Matry, Jones, Laid, Lowe, March, Stevenson, Weaver and Yokum voted no.

The republicans filibustered on the bill to prevent the interference of troops at elections. All but Chittenden, Kelley, Kittinger and Morton declined to vote while there were not democrats present to constitute a quorum. The reason for filibustering was the refusal to allow Conger to offer an amendment.

A second call was ordered. At 2.40 the filibustering ceased and the bill passed—yeas 124, nays 90, a strict party vote, all the greenbackers voting in the affirmative with the democrats.

They were shipped on account of Vanderbilt, to be used in blasting at the Detroit tunnel. When the explosion happened the cars were being shunted into the yard. The damage will exceed $250,000. Geo. Hawkins, a car dealer, had both eyes put out by a splinter, and is not expected to live; Joseph Humphrey is badly out about the head and face, but may recover; Alfred Lamb and Mr. Fian were badly injured.

DRUNKEN STUFF.

How many children and women are slowly and surely dying, or rather being killed, by excessive doctoring, or the daily use of some drug or drunken stuff called medicine, that no one knows what it is made of, who can easily be cured and saved by Hop Bitters, made of Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., which is so pure, simple and harmless that the most frail woman, weakest invalid or small child can trust in them. Will you be saved by them? See other column.

On Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature of even that famous street, convenient to all places of interest, and noted for its luxurious appointments—is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

THE ONLY WAY.

The only way to cure catarrh is by the use of a cleansing and healing lotion, applied to the inflamed and diseased membrane. Snuffs and fumigations, while affording temporary relief, irritate the affected parts and excite a more extended inflammation. Besides, no outward applications alone can cure catarrh. The disease originates in a vitiated state of the blood, and a thorough alternative course of treatment is necessary to remove it from the system. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has long been known as an efficient standard remedy for this disease, but, to insure a radical and permanent cure, it should be used in conjunction with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best vegetable alternative yet discovered. The Discov ery cleanses the vitiated blood, while a Catarrh Remedy allays the inflammation, and heals the diseased tissues.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The immense increase in the circulation of THE SENTINEL during the past few days has necessitated an entire reorganization of the routes, the employment of several new carriers, etc. In placing so many new names upon our lists there has been unavoidable confusion, and as a consequence many of our subscribers have been missed. We must therefore beg the indulgence of our patrons for a few days. We shall be obliged if any failure to promptly and regularly deliver the SENTINEL will be reported at once to the office or to the city circulator.

ZACH CHANDLER says he don't want to be president. The country feels relieved.

We have received the first copy of the National View, the new greenback organ published at Washington by LEE CRANDALL. It is a weekly journal, handsomely printed, and the initial number is characterized by much ability.

It is gradually dawning upon the country that Judge DAVID DAVIS, of Illinois, is a statesman whose broad views and unflinching patriotism stand out in refreshing contrast with the selfishness and littleness of the average political leader of the day.

HORATIO SEYMOUR has written a letter positively declining to be a candidate for the office of governor of New York. His letter is full of wise, patriotic and statesmanlike advice to the democracy of the Empire state, who are quarreling as vigorously as ever. It would be a good thing if the veteran statesman's admonitions were heeded by those for whom they were intended.

ROSCOE CONKLING's beautiful and lovely daughter was recently married to a railroad official said to be in every way worthy of her. He did not suit the aristocratic notions of Lord Roscoe, however, and the senator frowned upon the union. The wedding took place a few evenings since and was a brilliant affair. Senator CONKLING, however, was conspicuous by his absence and there was no token that he recognized the event in any way. No man guilty of such petty meanness can ever be president of the United States.

JOHN SHERMAN is in Ohio working up his political prospects. It is intimated that he will enter the lists for the governorship if he concludes, after a careful survey of the situation, that the republicans can carry the state. With the prestige gained by carrying Ohio, and the power and patronage of the administration under his control, SHERMAN thinks he can get the republican presidential nomination. There are numerous evidences that all of the republican elements of opposition to GRANT are centering on SHERMAN, and the wary secretary is busily engaged in looking after the main chance.

Gov. WILLIAMS has appointed MARK E. REEVES, of Richmond, a member of the state house commission to succeed Prof. COLLETT, resigned. The Richmond Palladium says of the new appointee:

Mr. REEVES's well-known business qualifications and indefatigable integrity will inspire confidence throughout the state, that in the erection of the new capitol building the money appropriated by the legislature will be faithfully and honestly expended, while his varied experience and sound judgment will guarantee a building proper in all its appointments for the purposes designed. We do not know whether Mr. REEVES will accept the position tendered him, but it is greatly to be desired, in the interests of the state, that he will do so. We notice that the leading papers of both political parties highly compliment the governor upon his judicious selection of a commissioner, and all heartily unite in the hope that Mr. REEVES will accept the appointment.

A PLAIN TALK WITH OUR READERS. The readers of both the DAILY and WEEKLY SENTINEL are either of the laboring or producing class, and we want to have a plain talk with them. We want to be understood and we say this to them:

We are in full sympathy with you, and our efforts shall be to advance your interests, and to add to your welfare, and we ask of you your confidence and support. We are not ambitious to lead or to make public opinion, but we do want to be your opinion, and to reflect your views, and our columns will always be open and free to your representative men. We will freely give an opinion as to what is your interest, but should we, in your judgment, fail to see the right we will be glad to have your counsel and an exchange of views. When we are wrong we want to be set right. This is the nineteenth century and we expect to be progressive and in the advance. We will be no sticklers for precedent, and will not follow the paths made by our fathers simply because our fathers made them. We do not hope to be consistent, for we expect to improve, to learn, and what we said or thought yesterday will not influence our thoughts or sayings of to-day.

Our purpose is to continue the SENTINEL as a democratic paper, because we believe that the reforms that are needed in our government can best be accomplished through that organization. There ought to be but two political parties in this country, and capital has so long managed the republican party that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to wrest from them the control of that organization. (By capital we mean those capitalists and corporations, comparatively few in number, that now control the government and use it to protect their personal interests.) The democratic party has always professed to be the party of the people, and we have confidence in the sincerity of its professions; but, if the people surrender the management of any political party to men who have adopted politics as a profession for the purpose of personal gain, they must not wonder if those managers corrupt it and make it a machine for enriching themselves. With proper organization, the people can control either of the two great political parties, and to assist them in such organization for such purpose shall be the policy of this paper. Our system of government furnishes redress for every wrong. The great arbiter, the ballot-box, will settle all our political differences, if we submit them there. The purpose of the founders of this government was to secure the greatest good to the greatest number, and the humblest laborer has now the same voice in its management as the wealthiest citizen has. Numbers will control. A majority can rule.

The mechanic knows that he gets for his labor about the same price that he did before the war, and that he now pays more for everything that he eats and wears than he did then. The farmer knows that, notwithstanding his improved machinery, it costs him more to raise a bushel of wheat or corn than it did before the war, and that he gets no more for his product now than he did then. There must be some reason for this. We believe that these things should not be, and that the cause of these troubles is class legislation; that there is a remedy and that the people control the remedy. In reducing the price of the SENTINEL to 25 cents per month we did so to enable every workman in this city and county to take it and we offer it to them as their organ, not to be used for finding fault and growing at others and pulling down other interests, but a paper in which their matters may be discussed so that their cause may be advanced.

FREEMAN'S CRIME.

The Sacrifice of a Child by Her Deluded Father in Obedience to the Command of God—Sanctioned by His Fellow Second Adventists.

(New York Herald.)
North Sandwich, Mass., May 3.—The waves lash against the shores of Cape Cod this morning with a dull deep-like sound. A cold east wind sweeps along the indented coast, sending a shiver through the veins and nerves of the hardest fisherman and farmer. But a stronger shudder creeps through the system of the fisherman and farmer as he hears with lated breath the terrible tale which comes up from the deserted farm of Charles F. Freeman, in Pocasset, where the beautiful little girl, daughter of the crazed murderer. The community is in a state of the wildest excitement over the tragedy. Little groups of hard-fisted farmers and weather-beaten seamen discuss its details and make their rude but sensible comments on the species of religious mania which drove a father to wilfully murder his child, and a mother to approve of the deed. Freeman was born in Highgate, Vt., in 1846. He is of light complexion, medium height, with a pleasant, open countenance, light blue eyes, which meet a person with whom he engages in conversation with unfinching gaze. He worked at his trade of healing shoes in Lynn for three years, and in 1874 came to Pocasset, where he has been engaged in farming ever since. He served three years in the army during the war and was married to Miss Hattie R. Ellis, of Pocasset, in 1868. The result of their union has been three bright children—Lillian, who died at the age of two months, in 1870; Bessie Mildred, the only one now living, born in 1872, and Edith, the one who, had she lived, would have been five in August. He was in moderate circumstances at the time of the murder, but had been in very poor circumstances for some time previous. At the age of twenty-one he experienced religion, but says he was beat out of it by back-sliding Christians. In February, 1878, he was converted to Adventism, and has been a very earnest worker and speaker for the cause since, and recognized as a leader of the Second Adventists here for a year. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman have always lived happily together and idolized the bright children which had comforted them.

THE MURDERER'S NARRATIVE.
On his way to jail he told the story of the tragedy with a calmness and trust in his final justification that simply startled the bystanders. "You know," he said, "that I had a revelation about a week ago in which the Lord appeared to me and told me to kill one of my family and offer it as a sacrifice. Well, He did not say what one, but on Thursday morning, on awaking from a sound sleep, some time about 2 o'clock, the Lord appeared to me and informed me that the victim of the sacrifice was my pet, my idol, my baby Edith. I awoke my wife and we talked the matter over and prayed to the Lord for guidance and direction, that if it was God's will that the cup might pass from me, and ended by saying, 'God's will be done.' The Lord said that it was necessary, and so I arose, went out of doors to my shop, and got a sheath knife. I then came in, and placing the lamp on the chair near the bed, I drew back the clothes, raised my hand to strike the fatal blow, fully convinced that the Lord would stay my hand as He did with Abraham when about to offer up his son Isaac; but he did not, and the knife descended. My darling turned as the knife struck her, and lifting her hands and opening her eyes, said, 'Oh, papa!' My oldest child awoke just as her little sister was about to be slain, and I sent her to her mother's room. I struck the deadly blow as tenderly as I could, and the little one died with the light of heaven on her face. I then took the bleeding child in my arms and wept bitterly. I lay down with it in bed. It seemed as if God had forsaken me as he did Jesus on the cross. I prayed and wept bitterly, and in the morning felt gloriously. God rewarded my soul with light, and I went to the depot at peace with God and all the world. I notified the selectmen and constables to be present at the meeting in the afternoon, but none came.

RELIGANCE ON GOD.
"Do you expect to hang for it?" asked the correspondent.
"No," answered Freeman, "God has commanded me to thus rudely awaken the world from its present condition, and God will justify his servant. If it had been my wife or the other child I should have done the same. I begged God to take my life, but that was not to be. I loved the child better than myself."
"You don't feel uneasy at going to jail?"
"No, not at all, why should I?" He said further that he was a second Abraham, and the feeling gave him great delight. He loved his child better than himself, and expected the heavens to fall rather than that he would be permitted to kill his dear one. He related the circumstances of the horrible deed, substantially stated above, and Mrs. Freeman gazed rapturously on her husband as he recited the terrible tale and corroborated his statements regarding her belief in this gospel. As he expounded his views to the reporter he became very enthusiastic, finally getting on his knees on the seat and facing the back of the car before many knew where he was, and was soon addressing the half hundred passengers in the car. He said in the course of his remarks, "Either the child will be raised from the dead in three days or she will be translated bodily to heaven." In his talk he exhibited great familiarity with both the Old and the New Testament.

APPROVED BY HIS SECT.
One of the strangest features of the terrible tragedy is the fact that the members of the sect to which Freeman belongs, the Second Adventists, who were present at the house by invitation, approve his act, regarding it as the result of a direct revelation. When the meeting in Freeman's house on Thursday afternoon was called to order, Mr. Freeman said he had a very important communication to impart from the Most High. The usual praying and singing were dispensed with, and Freeman proceeded with the recital of his terrible crime, giving every point with painful minuteness. The Adventists then quietly dispersed, and each kept locked in his own breast the secret with which they were now possessed. Mr. and Mrs. Alden P. Davis, both Adventists, remained all last night in the house of the Freemans, the latter couple retiring early and sleeping soundly, the body of their murdered child meanwhile lying in the bed where it had been struck down. The same evening a local police officer, named Seth H. Redding, visited the Davis residence, and noticed an unusual appearance in the manner of the oldest daughter of the family, Minnie, who appeared to be greatly disturbed. From her he learned the details of the tragedy, and proceeded to investigate. He found the Adventists reticent, and utterly unwilling to make any communication. But when he confronted Freeman the latter confessed, and was soon taken to Barnstable with his wife, where both are now safely lodged in the county jail.

THE SECOND ADVENTISTS.
The history of the sect in the village of Pocasset is briefly told. Two years ago, a man some sixty years of age, named Nathaniel Wing, a member of the Pocasset Methodist Episcopal Church, who had become imbued through his attendance upon a camp meeting near the Tremont railway station in the town of Wareham, during the summer of 1875, began to disseminate the peculiar tenets of that sect among his fellow members of the Methodist society of Pocasset. At his first convert was Charles F. Freeman, then a probationary member of the Methodist Church. Others accepted the new doctrine until at present about eight families numbering some twenty-five persons, are banded together in the Advent faith. About a year ago these people ceased from the Methodist church, and began holding Sunday services in a building used as a summer hotel, called the Red Brook House, kept by George Hathaway, a reputed sympathizer with them. They also held frequent meetings on week days in each other's houses. Occasionally some of them would attend the Methodist church, and their actions in that place of worship were frequently most scandalous. The clergyman at that time was Daniel M. Rogers, who has just been transferred to Cohasset, his place being filled by Rev. Edward Williams, late of Mansfield. The Adventists would disturb the meeting by attempting to argue with the pastor and address the congregation, and one of them once, it is said, called the pastor a liar while officiating in the pulpit. The breach between the two sects became wider and wider, and the feeling of opposition correspondingly intense. Freeman was the most enthusiastic man in the sect, and the awful proposition to murder his child has been running in his mind for two weeks. It has culminated in one of the most thrilling tragedies ever perpetrated in eastern Massachusetts.

FREEMAN ARRANGED.
Freeman and his wife, Harriet P., were brought before Justice Smith K. Hopkins, at Barnstable, to-day. They pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, and the hearing of the evidence was commenced. Deputy Sheriff Harris said that he arrived at Freeman's house and was welcomed by him; went in with Medical Examiner Dr. J. M. Smith, of Barnstable, and Dr. George M. Munsell, of Harwich; found the child dead on the bed; Freeman made no resistance to going with us. Medical Examiner Smith testified that he had examined the dead child; that he found a knife wound between the fifth and sixth ribs on the left side one and one-quarter inches wide, three inches deep, entering the heart; asked Freeman if he took the child's life; he said, "Yes, by order of the Lord, as Abraham was ordered to sacrifice Isaac, and if the Lord had not meant that I should kill her he would have stayed my hand." Mrs. Freeman said to Dr. Smith that she had consented to the deed; that she did not see it done; that she saw the child die.

FATHER AND MOTHER LOCKED UP.
No other witnesses were examined and Freeman and his wife were remanded to jail. He went without being handcuffed, she leaning on his arm. While waiting for examination they conversed together, and he would at times say "Nearer My God to Thee." Not a tear was shed by either. Both listened attentively to the testimony. Freeman has slept soundly in jail and cats, but not with appetite. He says the child will rise Sunday morning, or the Lord will take it bodily to heaven.

BALLOT BOXING.

The Annual City Election in Progress To-day—Certain Success of the Entire Democratic City Ticket—Close Contests for Councilmen in Some of the Wards.

The annual city election is being held to-day, the offices to be filled being mayor, clerk, treasurer, marshal, assessor, three water works trustees and nine councilmen. The situation was complicated a good deal by the fact that there were four city tickets and several independent candidates in the field besides. The election is passing off quietly and the vote will be comparatively slight one. In only two or three wards was any excitement visible.

FIRST WARD.

In this ward a light vote was being polled and there was no excitement. Chas. Reese, the democratic nominee for the council, was getting about three votes to every one cast for Willis P. Doty, the independent candidate. Doty was his only opponent, McKean, the greenback nominee, having withdrawn last night. On the city ticket there was little snatching, except for marshal. It was conceded on all sides that Teghtmeyer, the democratic candidate, would carry the ward by a plurality over Diehl, republican, Kelly, independent, and Lancaster, greenbacker.

SECOND WARD.

Montgomery Hamilton, the democratic nominee, has no opposition, having found a clear track awaiting him this morning. In this ward the principal contest was for marshal. The regular democratic nominee, Mr. Teghtmeyer, seemed to be running behind, and there was a close brush for the ward between Kelly and Diehl. The vote was very light.

THIRD WARD.

In the third ward there was intense excitement, a large vote, and a big crowd at the polls. The center of interest was the councilman race between James Breen, democrat, and James Ryan, republican. The vote between them was very close, and it was difficult to predict the result. There is reason to believe, however, that Mr. Breen will be elected by a small majority. The democratic city ticket was sweeping the ward. Kelly's and Diehl's friends were working hard, but Teghtmeyer had a clear majority.

FOURTH WARD.

Hi Poyser, republican, and B. J. Rokers, independent, candidates for council, withdrew before the polls opened, leaving Charley Muhler no opposition except Neil McKay, the greenback candidate, who was getting a very few scattering votes. There was a light vote and little excitement. The entire city ticket will carry the ward by a good majority.

FIFTH WARD.

In this ward there was considerable excitement and a full vote being polled. It was conceded that the entire city democratic ticket would carry the ward, but the race between Fry (democrat) and Bash (republican) for councilman, was too close to be comfortable. The chances were regarded as slightly in Fry's favor.

SIXTH WARD.

Our reporter found a quiet election in this ward and a light vote being polled. John H. Welch, the democratic nominee for the council, had no opposition of any kind. The ward was going strong for the regular city ticket with the possible exception of Teghtmeyer. It was thought possible, but not probable, that Kelly might carry the ward.

SEVENTH WARD.

There was not much excitement in this ward and the vote was short. John Mohr, jr., the democratic nominee for council seemed to have every thing his own way, as his opponent, Thos. Craig, the independent candidate, was receiving a small vote. Kelly will probably carry the ward for marshal, but the rest of the democratic ticket will go through by a handsome majority. W. J. Kerr, Geo. Gordon and others were working hard against Mayor Zollinger, but he will receive nearly the full democratic vote of the ward.

EIGHTH WARD.

There was a good sized crowd at the polls and a tolerably full vote being cast. Dreyer, the democratic nominee for councilman, was receiving more than twice the number of votes cast for his opponent, Henry Hitzman, the independent nominee. The entire democratic city ticket was largely ahead.

NINTH WARD.

There was a good deal of excitement in this ward and a large vote was being polled. The situation on councilman was decidedly mixed, there being three candidates in the field—Christ. Schaefer, democrat, Henry Leinker and John Lillie, jr., independents. The contest was close between Schaefer and Lillie, there being confessedly no chance for Leinker. The majority either way for Lillie or Schaefer will be small. The entire city ticket was ahead.

NOTES.

The temperance people met at their hall last evening and "ratified" the ticket nominated at city hall Saturday night. In spite of this encouragement however, Messrs. Graham, Olds and Mills printed a card in this morning's Gazette withdrawing from the race.

Mr. Teghtmeyer will probably be elected marshal to-day, but whether he is or not, the action of so many democrats in voting against him is to be condemned. He is a good, sober, industrious man, and a reputable citizen against whom nothing could truthfully be said. He will compare favorably with either of his opponents in every respect, and if elected will make a good officer. He was regularly nominated and if he is defeated it will be another blow at the democratic organization in this city.

There was observable, in certain quarters to-day, a lamentable disposition to mix religion with politics, and to vote for or against a man on some religious grounds. This is to be deeply regretted and condemned, and can result in no good but only in evil. Politics and religion will not mix any better than oil and water.

The lively stables are doing a good business to-day, and public vehicles of every description are in demand.

At 2 P. M. the votes polled in the several wards were: First, 914; second, 825; third, 377; fourth, 359; fifth, 446; sixth, 322; seventh, 331; eighth, 337; ninth, 240. In the first, third, fourth, fifth and ninth wards the straight ticket was ahead; in the second, sixth, seventh and eighth wards Kelly was reported ahead for marshal.

COUNTERFEITS.
Counterfeit democratic tickets were circulated at all the polls to-day. The heading was set up to imitate the regular heading. There is a law to punish this offense, and the guilty parties may rest assured that they will be brought to justice.

BREVITIES.

MURDER MYSTERY.

A Former Well-Known Citizen the Supposed Victim.

Jos. Ebright Believed to Have Been Murdered at Defiance.

A special telegram from Defiance (O.) to the SENTINEL announces the supposed murder at that place last night of Jos. H. Ebright, formerly a well known citizen of Fort Wayne. Ebright was for several years constable here and was a brother-in-law of Councilman Graham. The telegram is as follows:

[Special to the Sentinel.]

Defiance, O., May 6.—Last night Jos. H. Ebright, foreman of the Defiance Machine Works, went to the depot at this place and purchased a ticket for Fort Wayne, where his wife is now visiting relatives. He missed the first train and said that he would take the next train. This morning his between the depot and the river bank. Both of them were full of holes. There was a trail of blood leading to the river, and indications of a scuffle. A long knife was found in the vicinity, also Ebright's pocket-book, which contained nothing except the ticket to Fort Wayne.

No doubt is felt that Ebright was murdered and his body thrown into the river. He was last seen alive about midnight. He was supposed to have had quite a sum of money with him. There is intense excitement and the river is being dragged for the body, which has not yet been found. There is no clue to the murderers. The city council will meet to-night and offer a reward of $1,000 for their apprehension. The Masonic fraternity, of which Ebright was a member, meets this afternoon to take action.

Mrs. Ebright is in the city visiting at the residence of Councilman Graham, No. 397 Hanna street. At noon she had not heard the terrible news.

Strange it is that articles of merit are sure to be imitated. It is somewhat amusing to notice the weak attempts which are being made in imitating "Favorite Stoves." Go and see them at H. J. Ash's.

BALLOT BOXING.

The Annual City Election in Progress To-day—Certain Success of the Entire Democratic City Ticket—Close Contests for Councilmen in Some of the Wards.

The annual city election is being held to-day, the offices to be filled being mayor, clerk, treasurer, marshal, assessor, three water works trustees and nine councilmen. The situation was complicated a good deal by the fact that there were four city tickets and several independent candidates in the field besides. The election is passing off quietly and the vote will be comparatively alight one. In only two or three wards was any excitement visible.

FIRST WARD.

In this ward a light vote was being polled and there was no excitement. Chas. Reese, the democratic nominee for the council, was getting about three votes to every one cast for Willis P. Doty, the independent candidate. Doty was his only opponent, McKean, the greenback nominee, having withdrawn last night. On the city ticket there was little snatching, except for marshal. It was conceded on all sides that Teghtmeyer, the democratic candidate, would carry the ward by a plurality over Diehl, republican, Kelly, independent, and Lancaster, greenbacker.

SECOND WARD.

Montgomery Hamilton, the democratic nominee, has no opposition, having found a clear track awaiting him this morning. In this ward the principal contest was for marshal. The regular democratic nominee, Mr. Teghtmeyer, seemed to be running behind, and there was a close brush for the ward between Kelly and Diehl. The vote was very light.

THIRD WARD.

In the third ward there was intense excitement, a large vote, and a big crowd at the polls. The center of interest was the councilmanic race between James Breen, democrat, and James Ryan, republican. The vote between them was very close, and it was difficult to predict the result. There is reason to believe, however, that Mr. Breen will be elected by a small majority. The democratic city ticket was sweeping the ward. Kelly's and Diehl's friends were working hard, but Teghtmeyer had a clear majority.

FOURTH WARD.

Hi Poyser, republican, and B. J. Rekers, independent, candidates for council, withdrew before the polls opened, leaving Charley Muhler no opposition except Neil McKay, the greenback candidate, who was getting a very few scattering votes. There was a light vote and little excitement. The entire city ticket will carry the ward by a good majority.

FIFTH WARD.

In this ward there was considerable excitement and a full vote being polled. It was conceded that the entire city democratic ticket would carry the ward, but the race between Fry (democrat) and Bash (republican) for councilman, was too close to be comfortable. The chances were regarded as slightly in Fry's favor.

SIXTH WARD.

Our reporter found a quiet election in this ward and a light vote being polled. John H. Welch, the democratic nominee for the council, had no opposition of any kind. The ward was going strong for the regular city ticket with the possible exception of Teghtmeyer. It was thought possible, but not probable, that Kelly might carry the ward.

SEVENTH WARD.

There was not much excitement in this ward and the vote was short. John Mohr, jr., the democratic nominee for council seemed to have everything his own way, as his opponent, Thos. Craig, the independent candidate, was receiving a small vote. Kelly will probably carry the ward for marshal, but the rest of the democratic ticket will go through by a handsome majority. W. J. Kerr, Geo. Gordon and others were working hard against Mayor Zollinger, but he will receive nearly the full democratic vote of the ward.

EIGHTH WARD.

There was a good sized crowd at the polls and a tolerably full vote being cast. Dreyer, the democratic nominee for councilman, was receiving more than twice the number of votes cast for his opponent, Henry Hitzman, the independent nominee. The entire democratic city ticket was largely ahead.

NINTH WARD.

There was a good deal of excitement in this ward and a large vote was being polled. The situation on councilman was decidedly mixed, there being three candidates in the field—Christ. Schaffer, democrat, Henry Leinker and John Lillie, jr., independent. The contest was close between Schaffer and Lillie, there being confessedly no chance for Leinker. The majority either way for Lillie or Schaffer will be small. The entire city ticket was ahead.

NOTES.

The temperance people met at their hall last evening and "trailed" the ticket nominated at city hall Saturday night. In spite of this encouragement, however, Messrs. Graham, Olds and Mills printed a card in this morning's Gazette withdrawing from the race.

Mr. Teghtmeyer will probably be elected marshal to-day, but whether he is or not, the action of so many democrats in voting against him is to be condemned. He is a good, sober, industrious man, and a reputable citizen against whom nothing could truthfully be said. He will compare favorably with either of his opponents in every respect, and if elected will make a good officer. He was regularly nominated and if he is defeated it will be another blow at the democratic organization in this city.

There was observable, in certain quarters to-day, a lamentable disposition to mix religion with politics, and to vote for or against a man on some religious grounds. This is to be deeply regretted and condemned, and can result in no good but only in evil. Politics and religion will not mix any better than oil and water.

The lively stables are doing a good business to-day, and public vehicles of every description are in demand.

At 2 P. M. the votes polled in the several wards were: First, 314; second, 325; third, 377; fourth, 359; fifth, 446; sixth, 322; seventh, 331; eighth, 337; ninth, 240. In the first, third, fourth, fifth and ninth wards the straight ticket was ahead; in the second, sixth, seventh and eighth wards Kelly was reported ahead for marshal.

COUNTERFEITS.

Counterfeit democratic tickets were circulated at all the polls to-day. The heading was set up to imitate the regular heading. There is a law to punish this offense, and the guilty parties may rest assured that they will be brought to justice.

MURDER MYSTERY.

A Former Well-Known Citizen the Supposed Victim.

Jos. Ebricht Believed to Have Been Murdered at Defiance.

A special telegram from Defiance (O.) to the SENTINEL announces the supposed murder at that place last night of Jos. H. Ebricht, formerly a well known citizen of Port Wayne. Ebricht was for several years constable here and was a brother-in-law of Councilman Graham. The telegram is as follows:
(Special to the Sentinel.)

Defiance, O., May 6.—Last night Jos. H. Ebricht, foreman of the Defiance Machine Works, went to the depot at this place and purchased a ticket for Port Wayne, where his wife is now visiting relatives. He missed the first train and said that he would take the next train. This morning

HAT AND COAT WERE FOUND between the depot and the river bank. Both of them were full of holes. There was a trail of blood leading to the river, and indications of a scuffle. A long knife was found in the vicinity, also Ebricht's pocket-book, which contained nothing except the ticket to Port Wayne.

No doubt is felt that Ebricht was murdered and his body thrown into the river. He was last seen alive about midnight. He was supposed to have had quite a sum of money with him. There is intense excitement and the river is being dragged for the body, which has not yet been found. There is no clue to the murderers. The city council will meet to-night and offer a reward of $1,000 for their apprehension. The Masonic fraternity, of which Ebricht was a member, meets this afternoon to take action.

Mrs. Ebricht is in the city visiting at the residence of Councilman Graham, No. 397 Hanna street. At noon she had not heard the terrible news.
